

Littler Speaks To Accountants

Harry E. Littler, partner in the firm of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell Co., in the Los Angeles Office, addressed the Long Beach Chapter of the National Association of Accountants at their March 15th meeting in the Lafayette Hotel.

Littler is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is a member of the National Association of Accountants, American Institute of C.P.A.'s and the American Management Association. He has been a management consultant for the last nine years.

The subject of his talk was "Profit Improvement through Modern Controllership." He discussed how the modern Controller's duties and responsibilities have broadened, stressing that the Controller is now a member of the management team and his work is creative rather than historical. He also discussed the Controller's role in the development of budgets, forecasts, setting price policies, etc.
